CITIZENSHIP OF GRENADA

BY INVESTMENT (CBI) PROGRAM

Grenada Citizenship Program was created in 2013 as a measure of economic development and it is currently controlled by the Grenada Citizenship by Investment Committee. The Grenada Citizenship by Investment Program is one of the few programs—and the first one in the Caribbean Sea—that grants visa-free access to China and working rights in the United States of America. The “Grenada” Citizenship by Investment Program is accurate for individuals and families that want to invest in real estate abroad or make a useful donation to a beautiful nation in the Caribbean Sea. In exchange, they can obtain a second citizenship and a second passport that amplify their international mobility and business opportunities.

In addition to fulfilling personal requirements, applicants must also choose between two potential routes for citizenship:

1. A contribution to the National Transformation Fund

- *USD 150,000 for a single applicant
- *USD 200,000 for an applicant and up to 3 dependents
- *USD 25,000 for each additional dependent

2. An investment in an approved project (real estate) in Grenada

- *Direct Purchase of approved real estate with a minimum value of USD 350,000 to be held for at least five years
- *Purchase a share in authorized real estate with a minimum value of USD 220,000, which must be held for at least five years

Additional fees apply, such as Due Diligence, Application, Processing fees and other Government fees.

ABOUT GRENADA

As one of the most famous islands of the colonial spice trade, Grenada made a name for itself as the “spice island.” It has gorgeous natural resources, and picturesque Caribbean beaches, as well as a deep cultural flare that blends old Spanish culture with modern Caribbean charm. Grenada has long been a hot spot for luxury tourism and high-net-worth investors as well. Diving, sailing, excellent restaurants, clean beaches, and unforgettable celebrations all year round are some reasons why many wealthy investors prefer Grenada. In addition to its scenery, Grenada offers culture, fun, and friendliness typical of the authentic Caribbean life – making Grenada the perfect place in which to live, work and play.
