CITIZENSHIP OF ANTIGUA & BARBUDA BY INVESTMENT PROGRAM

The Antigua & Barbuda Citizenship by Investment Program is launched for investors, individuals, and their families to directly acquire alternative citizenship and a second passport. This program requires a financial commitment of at least USD 100,000 government donation (The National Development Fund), or a minimum USD 200,000 investment in real estate. Moreover, Antigua & Barbuda offers a special investment option to families of six and more to get life time citizenship by contributing a minimum amount of USD 150,000 to the University of the West Indies Fund. Considering this option, Antigua & Barbuda is the most affordable citizenship program among Caribbean CBI programs for large families. They can not only obtain citizenship by spending less money but also one family member can study for one year in the university free of charge.

The government of Antigua and Barbuda requests each new citizen to spend 5 days on the island during the 5 years period in order to get acquainted with the local culture.

Investment options are as follows:

1. Contribution to the National Development Fund

A. For a single applicant, or a family of 4 or less      $100,000

Processing fees: $30,000

Due Diligence fee: $7,500 per applicant or spouse

$4000 per adult family member

ABOUT ANTIGUA & BARBUDA

Antigua and Barbuda is a twin-island country in the Americas, lying between the Caribbean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean. It consists of two major inhabited islands, Antigua and Barbuda, and a number of smaller islands including Guiana Island, Bird Island, and Long Island. This wonderful country is known for its beautiful sea and clear azure water, tropics, and white beaches. St. John's is the capital and largest city of Antigua and Barbuda, located on the northwest coast of Antigua. It is the commercial center of the nation and the country's main port. Antigua and Barbuda is one of the Caribbean's most prosperous nations, thanks to its tourism industry and offshore financial services. With "one beach for every day of the year", the country attracts more than 700,000 visitors every year.
